Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 78TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 7, 2003

TO: Honorable Robert Duncan, Chair, Senate Committee on Jurisprudence

FROM: John Keel, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB320 by Grusendorf (Relating to the refusal to administer or consent to the administration of certain psychiatric or psychological treatment to a child.), As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would exempt from the definition of neglect refusal to consent to psychiatric or psychological treatment of a child if there is no imminent physical risk of serious harm to a child. The Department of Protective and Regulatory Services indicates that compliance with the bill would involve revision to current written materials and training to staff but that these costs could be absorbed within existing agency resources.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
