

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 78TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

February 12, 2003

TO: Honorable Joe Nixon, Chair, House Committee on Civil Practices

FROM: John Keel, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB335 by Hamric (Relating to the eligibility of persons to participate in the public sale of certain real property; providing penalties.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would add new sections to Chapter 34 of the Civil Practice and Remedies Code and to Chapter 34 of the Tax Code relating to eligibility standards for participation in the public sale of certain real property.

The bill would require persons bidding on real property at court-ordered public sales or tax sales to obtain a written statement from the county assessor-collector where the sale occurs stating that the person did not owe delinquent property taxes to that county.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
