

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 78TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 4, 2003

TO: Honorable Harold V. Dutton, Jr., Chair, House Committee on Juvenile Justice & Family Issues

FROM: John Keel, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB888 by Dutton (Relating to progressive sanctions programs for juvenile offenders.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would make several changes relative to the progressive sanctions program for juvenile offenders. The bill would remove the requirement that a court or probation department state written reasons for deviation from the progressive sanction guidelines. The bill would make changes to sanction levels three, four, and five. The bill would also remove the responsibility of the Criminal Justice Policy Council to monitor compliance with the progressive sanctions guidelines.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
