

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 78TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 24, 2003

TO: Honorable Phil King, Chair, House Committee on Regulated Industries

FROM: John Keel, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1175 by King (Relating to the regulation of cloning of human beings; providing penalties.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend Chapter 161, Health and Safety Code, by defining human cloning and specifying that a person licensed by a state agency as a health care practitioner who engages in human cloning is subject to civil penalties ranging from $5 million to $10 million for each violation and a criminal penalty of a felony of the first degree.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
