Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 78TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 14, 2003

TO: Honorable Kent Grusendorf, Chair, House Committee on Public Education

FROM: John Keel, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1225 by Eissler (Relating to time limits for requesting a special education due process hearing and filing an appeal of a special education hearing officer's decision.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.
-----------------------------------------------------------

The bill would impose time limits for requesting a special education due process hearing and filing an appeal of a special education hearing officer's decision. Under the bill, a person must request a special education due process hearing within one year of discovery of the action that is the basis for the request. In addition, the bill would require that an appeal of a hearing officer's decision be filed within 90 days of the date of the written decision.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
