

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 78TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 29, 2003

TO: Honorable Tom Craddick, Speaker of the House, House of Representatives

FROM: John Keel, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1634 by Hilderbran (Relating to the ability of a court to maintain jurisdiction over a person placed on community supervision who absconds and to defenses to revocation of community supervision.), As Passed 2nd House

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Code of Criminal Procedure by allowing a court to maintain jurisdiction over a person placed on community supervision who absconds. The bill would also define due diligence requirements. The Office of the Attorney General and the Texas Department of Criminal Justice anticipates any work resulting from the passage of this bill could be absorbed with current services.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
