

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 78TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 30, 2003

TO: Honorable Dennis Bonnen, Chair, House Committee on Environmental Regulation

FROM: John Keel, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1791 by Chisum (Relating to restrictions on the commercial composting of certain solid wastes.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would prohibit the commercial composting of grease, fat, oil, or wax unless a person demonstrates to the commission that the biological decomposition process that will be employed at the composting facility will decompose those wastes into products that have value as nutrients or soil amendments.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
