

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 78TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 30, 2003

TO: Honorable Joe Driver, Chair, House Committee on Law Enforcement

FROM: John Keel, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2223 by Krusee (Relating to the civil and family law consequences of engaging in certain terroristic activity.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Family Code and the Transportation Code relating to terroristic threats, false alarms or reports, or bomb hoaxes as a basis for driver license suspensions or denials for certain juveniles. According to the Department of Public Safety, the additional suspensions or denials generated under the bill would have no significant fiscal implication to the department. The bill would take effect September 1, 2003.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
