No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Health and Safety Code and the Family Code regarding certain forms collected by the Texas Department of Health's Bureau of Vital Statistics. The bill would require the Bureau of Vital Statistics to return incorrect forms, relating to certificates of adoption, annulments of adoption or revocations of adoption, and reports of divorce or annulment, back to the attorney of record designated on the form.

No significant fiscal impact is anticipated to the state because it is assumed the agency could implement the provisions of this bill with existing staff resources.
