

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 78TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 19, 2003

TO: Honorable David Dewhurst, Lieutenant Governor, Senate

FROM: John Keel, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB165 by Carona (Relating to the authority of certain law enforcement agencies to remove certain personal property from a roadway or right-of-way.), As Passed 2nd House

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would provide authority for the Department of Public Safety, a metropolitan transit authority, a regional transportation authority, the police department of a municipality, the sheriff's office of a county, or a constable's office of a county with a population of 3 million or more to remove certain personal property from a roadway or right-of-way. The bill would also allow for the reimbursement of costs to a law enforcement agency or authority from the owner of the personal property.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
