Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 78TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

February 26, 2003

TO: Honorable Steve Ogden, Chair, Senate Committee on Infrastructure Development and Security

FROM: John Keel, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB165 by Carona (Relating to the authority of certain law enforcement agencies to remove certain personal property from a roadway or right-of-way.), Committee Report 1st House, Substituted

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would provide authority for the Department of Public Safety, the police department of a municipality, the sheriff's office of a county, or a constable's office of a county with a population of 3 million or more to remove certain personal property from a roadway or right-of-way. The bill would also allow for the reimbursement of costs to law enforcement from the owner of the personal property.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
