

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 78TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 21, 2003

TO: Honorable Carlos Uresti, Chair, House Committee on Human Services

FROM: John Keel, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB261 by Shapleigh (Relating to the continuation and functions of the Texas Council on Purchasing from People with Disabilities.), As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill requirements would not significantly impact the duties currently being performed by the Texas Council on Purchasing from People with Disabilities, the Texas Building and Procurement Commission or the State Auditor's Office.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.

Source Agencies: 116 Sunset Advisory Commission, 301 Office Of The Governor, 303 Building And Procurement Commission, 308 State Auditor's Office

LBB Staff: JK, EB, GO, MS, RG