FISCAL NOTE, 78TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 1, 2003

TO: Honorable Robert Duncan, Chair, Senate Committee on Jurisprudence

FROM: John Keel, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB1207 by Duncan (Relating to state liability for costs and attorney's fees in certain actions seeking declaratory judgment.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Civil Practice and Remedies Code, Section 37.009, relating to state liability for costs and attorney's fees in certain actions seeking declaratory judgments. According to the Taxation Division of the Office of Attorney General, the state will realize savings based on prior Comptroller tax/refund protest cases; however, the fiscal implication of such savings is not anticipated to be significant. To the extent that the state may realize other possible savings in certain civil actions relating to construction of a state agency's powers or duties under the agency's enabling statute, the fiscal implication is not anticipated to be significant.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
