Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 78TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 31, 2003

TO: Honorable David Dewhurst , Lieutenant Governor, Senate
Honorable Tom Craddick, Speaker of the House, House of Representatives

FROM: John Keel, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB1835 by Staples (Relating to testing for communicable diseases certain people who are arrested.), Conference Committee Report

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Code of Criminal Procedure by requiring a person arrested for a misdemeanor or felony offense who causes an officer to come in contact with the person's bodily fluids to undergo a test designed to show whether the person has a communicable disease, at the direction of the court having jurisdiction over the arrested person. The Code of Criminal Procedure currently allows for such testing in cases where persons are arrested for the offense of resisting arrest, search, or transportation. It is assumed that the bill would not have a significant impact on the State.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
