

By: Jones of Dallas

H.C.R. No. 25

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, The Texas Historical Commission is honoring the life
2 of Henry Miller Morgan on July 25, 2005, with the dedication of an 3 official historical marker at the site in Tyler of the first African 4 American barber college, which Mr. Morgan founded; and

5 WHEREAS, Born in 1895, Mr. Morgan grew up in Tyler's St. Louis
6 community and completed his education at East Texas Academy, which 7 later became Butler College; he is listed as a barber in the Tyler
8 city directory as early as 1918, but in the 1920s, Texas enacted
9 laws requiring licenses for barbers and African Americans were 10 excluded from pursuing the required education; in response, Mr.
11 Morgan began developing ideas for a barber college for African 12 Americans, and in 1933 he opened a school on Erwin Street; and

13 WHEREAS, The college proved so successful that this 14 progressive leader opened branches in Houston in 1937, Jackson, 15 Mississippi, in 1945, Little Rock, Arkansas, in 1946, Manhattan in 16 1948, and Dallas in 1949; the college's Tyler headquarters grew to 17 accommodate the expanding enterprise, and at one time the school
18 reportedly was training a majority of the nation's African American 19 barbers; and

20 WHEREAS, In addition to his work with the school, Mr. Morgan
21 helped found the Texas Association of Tonsorial Artists, a 22 professional barbers' organization that has since grown to 23 encompass 13 chapters in 15 cities, as well as the Democratic 24 Progressive Voters League, one of the oldest African American

1 political organizations in the state; he also served as vice
2 president of the Texas Association of Barber Schools and as a
3 trustee of Butler College; and

4 WHEREAS, Henry Miller Morgan died in 1961, but more than 40
5 years after his death, this greatly admired civic and political 6 activist is being duly honored for the remarkable contributions he 7 made to his profession and to the African American community, and 8 the placement of a historical marker at the original location of the 9 school he founded ensures that his remarkable story will be 10 preserved for many years to come; now, therefore, be it

11 RESOLVED, That the 79th Legislature of the State of Texas,
12 1st Called Session, hereby commemorate the dedication of the Texas
13 State Historical Marker at the site in Tyler of the first African 14 American barber school and pay tribute to the life and legacy of 15 Henry Miller Morgan by proclaiming July 25, 2005, as Henry Miller
16 Morgan Day in Texas.