

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, The city of Huntsville lost one of its most beloved
2 residents and admired community leaders with the death of Lu Ellen 3 Gibbs on June 18, 2005, at the age of 88; and

4 WHEREAS, Born Lu Ellen Evans on May 7, 1917, this esteemed
5 Texan was a graduate of Galveston Ball High School and Texas
6 Christian University and later earned a master's degree in English 7 at Sam Houston State University; and

8 WHEREAS, Through her involvement with the Community Theater
9 in Huntsville, she met J. Philip Gibbs, whom she married in 1940; 10 Mr. Gibbs later became board chair for First National Bank and for 11 Gibbs Brothers and Company, a land and timber investment firm that 12 was founded in 1841 as a mercantile store and is thought to be the 13 oldest company in Texas still under original family ownership; and

14 WHEREAS, Mrs. Gibbs used her affluence and influence as a 15 member of one of the town's most prominent families in the best way 16 possible, offering her leadership and financial support to 17 countless civic and charitable organizations; a board member of 18 Region VI, the Huntsville Memorial Hospital, the Methodist
19 Retirement Center, the Texas Prison Museum, and Planned Parenthood,
20 she was a charter member of the Study Club and the Elkins Lake
21 Women's Golf Association; she also succeeded her husband as First 22 National Bank board chair and served on the board of the J. Philip 23 Gibbs Centre for the Performing Arts, named in honor of her late 24 husband; moreover, this enthusiastic arts patron lent her

1 assistance to the Old Town Theater and the Arts Commission, to name
2 but a few of the arts organizations that benefited from her support;
3 and

4 WHEREAS, Mrs. Gibbs was also a consummate athlete in her 5 earlier years, enjoying tennis, bowling, swimming, badminton, and 6 especially golf, and she considered the Lu Ellen Gibbs Open Golf
7 Tournament among her highest honors; she was a fan of Sam Houston
8 State University's golf and softball programs, and as a 9 Distinguished Alumna, she supported the school's academic 10 endeavors as well, funding numerous scholarships and founding the 11 President's Distinguished Lecturer series on campus; and

12 WHEREAS, Until the last weeks of her life, she personally
13 delivered copies of the Huntsville Item and the Houston Chronicle
14 to every patient at Huntsville Memorial Hospital each Sunday
15 morning before attending the early service at First Christian 16 Church, where she was a longtime member; known simply as "the 17 newspaper lady" to many at the hospital, this modest and unassuming 18 benefactor has been described as "having done more anonymous
19 philanthropy in Walker County than any single person," frequently 20 making contributions to organizations and paying tuition for 21 countless students who never knew the source of their good fortune;
22 and

23 WHEREAS, Lu Ellen Gibbs lived her life in service to others,
24 truly making a profound difference in the lives of her fellow
25 citizens of Huntsville, a town she dearly loved; although this 26 remarkable Texas lady will be sorely missed, the by-products of her 27 intrinsic kindness, generosity, and graciousness will continue to

1 be felt for many years to come; now, therefore, be it

2 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 79th Texas
3 Legislature, 1st Called Session, hereby pay tribute to the life of 4 Lu Ellen Gibbs and extend sincere sympathy to her family: to her
5 children, Mary Laura and Donald; to her grandchildren, Noah, Ben,
6 Seth, Tim, and Ruth; to her sister, Dorothy Bock; and to her other 7 relatives and many friends; and, be it further

8 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 9 prepared for the members of her family and that when the Texas House 10 of Representatives adjourns this day, it do so in memory of Lu Ellen 11 Gibbs.

Kolkhorst

H.R. No. 43

Speaker of the House

I certify that H.R. No. 43 was unanimously adopted by a rising vote of the House on July 13, 2005.

Chief Clerk of the House