

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, Community supervision and parole officers are 2 dedicated public servants who make vital contributions to public 3 safety through the supervision of offenders in our communities; and

4 WHEREAS, These dedicated professionals work in environments
5 that are at times hostile and stressful, and they interact with 6 offenders in a wide range of situations, meeting with them in the 7 office, home, and workplace; and

8 WHEREAS, Essential to the success of the criminal justice
9 system, community supervision and parole officers play a 10 significant role in helping offenders gain the skills they need to 11 live in society and become productive citizens; and

12 WHEREAS, During the week of July 17-23, 2005, community
13 supervision and parole officers throughout the nation are 14 deservedly being recognized for their important work; now,
15 therefore, be it

16 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 79th Texas
17 Legislature, 1st Called Session, hereby honor the achievements and 18 hard work of the community supervision and parole officers in Texas
19 and recognize the week of July 17-23, 2005, as Texas Probation,
20 Parole, and Community Supervision Week.

Madden

H.R. No. 333

Speaker of the House

I certify that H.R. No. 333 was adopted by the House on July 18, 2005, by a non-record vote.

Chief Clerk of the House