3 with a quality educational program under the administration of 4 Sister Juliana and Father Daley; and

5           WHEREAS, The school closed in 1957 and reopened in 1980 under 6 the administration of Sister Edna Ann Hebert and Father George 7 Artis, and the school's name was changed to St. Mary of the 8 Purification Montessori School, the only African American 9 Montessori school in Texas; and

10           WHEREAS, St. Mary's Montessori School offers a faith-based 11 educational program providing the Houston metropolitan area with an 12 educational opportunity that nurtures the optimal spiritual, 13 intellectual, cultural, and physical development of its students in 14 a collaborative partnership with parents; and

15           WHEREAS, Fully accredited by the Texas Catholic Conference
16 Accreditation Commission and the Texas Education Agency, St. Mary 17 of the Purification Montessori School is part of the archdiocese of 18 Galveston/Houston and is affiliated with the American Montessori 19 Society, the Texas Association of Non-Public Schools, and the 20 National Catholic Education Association of Science Teachers; and

21           WHEREAS, Included among outstanding early alumni of 22 St. Mary's School are former congressman Bill Archer, the late Jim 23 McConn, former mayor of Houston, and Archbishop William J. Levada,
24 who was named Prefect of the Congregation of Faith by Pope Benedict

1 XVI; more recent notable alumni include business entrepreneurs Rene
2 Ferrel, Cynthia Ferrel, Alan Bergeron, and Leslie Mays and 3 community activist Toni McElroy; and

4 WHEREAS, The goal of the Founders Day Celebration is to bring 5 together community leaders, bankers, business owners, politicians, 6 religious leaders, parishioners, teachers, alumni, students, and 7 all others to emphasize the school as a major community asset, and 8 this special day will undoubtedly achieve this worthwhile
9 objective; now, therefore, be it
