

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, Those businesses that place a high priority on being 2 good corporate citizens have discovered that contributions to their 3 community are investments that are repaid many times over; and

4 WHEREAS, IBC Bank of Laredo is one such institution, and its 5 many initiatives aimed at improving the lives of South Texans have 6 earned it recognition as a finalist for a 2005 Corporate 7 Citizenship Award, presented by the United States Chamber of 8 Commerce Center for Corporate Citizenship; and

9 WHEREAS, Nominated in the category of corporate stewardship
10 for small-to-midsize businesses, IBC has supported numerous 11 programs throughout the Rio Grande Valley, including its proactive
12 placement of actual bank branches in Brownsville and McAllen grade 13 schools; as part of micro-communities run by the students, the 14 banks function as teaching tools for financial literacy; and

15 WHEREAS, Through this and other outreach efforts, IBC has 16 secured its stature as a valued corporate citizen, and it is indeed 17 appropriate that its leadership in advancing important social and 18 economic goals in the communities it serves be recognized with this 19 noteworthy nomination; now, therefore, be it
