

By: Callegari

H.C.R. No. 18

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, The citizens of Houston lost a visionary business
2 and civic leader with the passing of Walter Max Mischer on December 3 18, 2005, at the age of 83; and

4 WHEREAS, A native Texan, Mr. Mischer was born on July 4, 1922,
5 in Karnes County, the son of Walter and Georgia Mischer; growing up 6 in South Texas, he struggled with the early, sudden loss of his 7 father and the economic difficulties of the Great Depression, but 8 with the same resolve that he would exhibit for the rest of his 9 life, Mr. Mischer worked hard to earn the necessary tuition to study 10 engineering at the Texas College of Arts and Industries in 11 Kingsville; and

12 WHEREAS, Mr. Mischer contributed to the American cause in 13 World War II by supervising the construction of naval bases before 14 turning his talent for building and planning to peaceful purposes 15 in his new hometown of Houston; his innovative approach to 16 residential development aided several generations of Texans in 17 fulfilling their dreams of home ownership, and the respected name
18 of Mischer Investments, his primary business, became synonymous
19 with the growth of Houston into one of the premier cities of Texas
20 and the United States; and

21 WHEREAS, Walter Mischer's business acumen was also proven in 22 banking, where his adept management led to the creation of Allied 23 Bancshares in 1971; moreover, he was one of the founders of the 24 Marathon Manufacturing Company, an important energy-services

1 provider, and his enlightened stewardship of his land holdings in 2 West Texas contributed to the creation of Big Bend Ranch State Park, 3 an awe-inspiring preserve that can now be enjoyed by all; and

4 WHEREAS, This thoughtful and perceptive man took an intense
5 interest in the affairs of local, state, and federal government; 6 providing assistance and guidance to a long line of legislators and 7 executives, both Republican and Democrat, Mr. Mischer played an 8 integral role in promoting the careers of some of the most esteemed 9 political figures to hail from Texas, from Lyndon B. Johnson to 10 George H. W. Bush; and

11 WHEREAS, Mr. Mischer's contributions to his state and to the 12 city of Houston were recognized by the prestigious awards he 13 received in his lifetime, which included being named Outstanding
14 Citizen of Houston in 1965, being inducted into the Texas Business
15 Hall of Fame in 1985, and winning the Impact Award from the West 16 Houston Association in 2004; and

17 WHEREAS, Walter Mischer's unique mix of entrepreneurial 18 genius, civic responsibility, and influential ideas made him a 19 sterling example of what one dedicated individual can accomplish by 20 immersing himself in the political process, not to gain personal 21 glory but to make a positive difference in the world around him;
22 now, therefore, be it

23 RESOLVED, That the 79th Legislature of the State of Texas,
24 3rd Called Session, hereby pay tribute to the life of Walter Max 25 Mischer and extend sincere sympathy to the members of his family: to 26 his wife of 62 years, Mary Alford Mischer; to his children, Paula 27 Mischer and Walter M. Mischer, Jr., and his wife, Leila; to his

1 grandchildren, Candace Watson, Robert L. Corson and his wife,
2 Olivia, Walter R. Corson and his wife, Jodie, Duncan M. Watson,
3 Walter M. Mischer III, Lawson W. Mischer, and Morgan J. Mischer; to 4 his great-grandsons, Nicholas A. Corson and Andrew Corson; to his 5 sisters, Edna Kerlick and Marilyn Russell and her husband, Tom; and 6 to his many other relatives and friends; and, be it further

7 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 8 prepared for his family, and that when the Texas House of 9 Representatives and Senate adjourn this day, they do so in memory of 10 Walter Max Mischer.