

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, The people of Midland and West Texas lost a civic 2 leader of ability and dedication with the passing of John Frank 3 Younger, Sr., on October 1, 2005, at the age of 90; and

4           WHEREAS, Born in McKinney on November 8, 1914, Mr. Younger
5 worked his way through Texas A&M University and graduated with a 6 degree in chemical engineering in 1937; in his first professional 7 job, he worked as a mud engineer for Baroid Sales Division, National 8 Lead Company; and

9           WHEREAS, Mr. Younger joined the United States Army in 1941 as 10 a chemical warfare officer; he subsequently served for 31 months as 11 the executive officer of the port of Khorramshahr, in what is now 12 Iran, supervising the shipment of wartime supplies to the Soviet 13 Union; by the time he was discharged in 1945, he had earned a Bronze 14 Star and attained the rank of lieutenant colonel; and

15           WHEREAS, Following his return to civilian life, Mr. Younger 16 moved his family to West Texas and joined the Western Company;
17 within six years he had become vice president in charge of wire line 18 services and general manager for research; in 1957, he struck out on 19 his own as an independent oil operator and real estate developer; 20 and

21           WHEREAS, While achieving notable success in the business 22 world, Mr. Younger also worked diligently in behalf of his 23 community; he was a founding director and chairman of High Sky
24 Girls' Ranch, a member of the founding board of the Petroleum Basin

1 Museum, Library, and Hall of Fame, a two-term trustee for the 2 Midland Independent School District, a president of the Midland
3 Chamber of Commerce, a vice chairman of the Community Chest, and a 4 member of the Exchange Club; in addition, he was a board chairman
5 and longtime fund-raiser for Midland Presbyterian Homes and an 6 active and honorary member of the Abell-Hanger Foundation Board of 7 Trustees; and

8         WHEREAS, An ardent Aggie, he served as a member of the 9 President's Council at Texas A&M and as president of the Former 10 Students Association, which established the Century Club under his 11 leadership; he was also instrumental in the creation of the 12 university's Institute of Nautical Archeology; and

13         WHEREAS, Among the many accolades received by Mr. Younger
14 were the Golden Deeds award from the Exchange Club, the Top Hand 15 award from the Permian Basin Petroleum Association, the Trustee of 16 the Year award from both the Texas and National Associations of 17 Homes for the Aged, and the Distinguished Alumnus award from Texas 18 A&M; moreover, the Younger Center, which specializes in the care of 19 patients with Alzheimer's disease, was named in his honor at Manor 20 Park; and

21         WHEREAS, Mr. Younger married Charlene Smith on April 10, 22 1939, in Lake Charles, Louisiana, and the couple enjoyed a loving 23 marriage that spanned more than six decades until her passing;
24 together with several other families, they formed Memorial
25 Christian Church, Disciples of Christ, in 1954, and Mr. Younger 26 served the congregation for many years as an elder; and

27         WHEREAS, John Younger leaves an extraordinary legacy in the

1 programs and institutions he helped bring to fruition and in the 2 countless small miracles he worked, often anonymously, for ordinary 3 individuals; his life was rich in purpose, accomplishments, family, 4 and friends, and his memory will be forever cherished by all who 5 shared in the warmth of his friendship and affection; now,
6 therefore, be it

7         RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 79th Texas 8 Legislature, 3rd Called Session, hereby pay special tribute to the 9 life of John Frank Younger, Sr., and extend sincere sympathy to the 10 members of his family: to his sons and daughters-in-law, John F.
