H.R. No. 178

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, The knowledge that their homes and families are 2 being lovingly cared for in their absence offers soldiers
3 immeasurable comfort and solace, and for more than a year, while 4 First Lieutenant Christopher Combest was serving his country as 5 part of the 2nd Battalion, 112th Armor Regiment, 56th Brigade
6 Combat Team of the 36th Infantry Division in Iraq, his wife, Gerri 7 Lyn Combest, was sustaining their North Texas household; and

8           WHEREAS, With remarkable perseverance and courage, this 9 esteemed Texan successfully shouldered responsibilities alone that 10 had once been shared; indeed, without the assistance of her spouse,
11 the burden of managing the home was sometimes great and Mrs. Combest 12 must have often felt the painful ache of separation particularly 13 familiar to wives of servicemen; and

14           WHEREAS, Difficult times are frequently eased by crucial 15 connections with others, and Mrs. Combest was part of a caring and 16 helpful community of women whose husbands were deployed with one
17 another; reaching out to each other in times of need, the women 18 provided an important source of empathy and encouragement; never 19 losing sight of what bound them together, they organized 20 fund-raising efforts to purchase and send supplies to their men in 21 Iraq; and

22           WHEREAS, Throughout history women have been an integral part 23 of wartime endeavors, whether as soldiers themselves, nurses,
24 factory workers, or loved ones offering their spouses a vital link

1 home, and in her steadfast attention to domestic duties while her
2 husband was stationed in Iraq, Gerri Lyn Combest has earned a place
3 in this most respected legacy; now, therefore, be it

4         RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 79th Texas
5 Legislature, 3rd Called Session, hereby honor Gerri Lyn Combest
6 for her dedicated and resolute support of the household during the 7 deployment of her husband, First Lieutenant Christopher Combest, in 8 Iraq and extend to both of them sincere best wishes for a prosperous 9 and happy future together; and, be it further

10         RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 11 prepared for Mrs. Combest and her husband as an expression of high 12 regard by the Texas House of Representatives.
