

Amend CSHB 2702 (committee printing) by adding the following appropriately numbered sections.

SECTION __. Section 21.001, Property Code, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 21.001. CONCURRENT JURISDICTION. District courts and county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction in eminent domain cases in every county in the state, notwithstanding any other law. A county court has no jurisdiction in eminent domain cases.

SECTION __. Section 21.013, Property Code, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 21.013. VENUE; FEES AND PROCESSING FOR ACTION [~~SUIT~~] FILED IN DISTRICT COURT. (a) The venue of a condemnation proceeding is the county in which the owner of the property being condemned resides if the owner resides in a county in which part of the property is located. Otherwise, the venue of a condemnation proceeding is any county in which at least part of the property is located.

(b) Except where otherwise provided by law, a party initiating a condemnation proceeding [~~in a county in which there is one or more county courts at law with jurisdiction~~] shall file the petition with any clerk authorized to handle such filings for a [that] court that has jurisdiction in eminent domain cases [~~or courts~~].

(c) [~~A party initiating a condemnation proceeding in a county in which there is not a county court at law must file the condemnation petition with the district clerk.~~] The filing fee shall be due at the time of filing in accordance with Section 51.317, Government Code.

(d) District and county clerks shall assign an equal number of eminent domain cases in rotation to each court with jurisdiction that the clerk serves.
