(a) Within seven days after a bill or resolution has been referred to the appropriate calendars committee, the committee must place the bill or resolution on one of the calendars of the daily house calendar or the local, consent, and resolutions calendar, as applicable, to permit the bill or resolution to be considered by the house on second reading within seven days after the date the bill or resolution is placed on a calendar if the bill or resolution is joint authored or coauthored by at least 76 members of the house.

(b) Except as provided in Subsection (a), within ~~[Within]~~ 30 calendar days after a bill or resolution has been referred to the appropriate calendars committee, the committee must vote on whether to place the bill or resolution on one of the calendars of the daily house calendar or the local, consent, and resolutions calendar, as applicable.
