AUTHOR'S/SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Until the 78th Legislature, Regular Session, 2003, Texas court costs, fees, and penalties were scattered throughout Texas statutes, making it difficult to assess fees, especially when several costs were to be levied simultaneously. For ease of reference, S.B. 1180, 78th Legislature, Regular Session, added an index of these court costs, fees, and penalties to the Government Code.

S.B. 291 updates the index to include fees that were overlooked in S.B. 1180. This bill provides for a complete and comprehensive list of the fees and costs currently in Texas statutes.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.

SECTION BY SECTION ANALYSIS

SECTION 1. Amends Section 101.061, Government Code, to include the following fees and costs that the clerk of a district court is required to collect:

(22-a)-(22-c) Certain child and spousal support service fees in certain counties, provided those fees are authorized by the appropriate entities; and attorney's fees of $15 as an additional cost in Montague County on a finding of contempt of court for failure to pay child or spousal support if the contempt action is initiated by the probation department.

(36)-(38) A certain amount of court fees and costs, if ordered by the court, for a suit filed by an inmate in which an affidavit or unsworn declaration of inability to pay costs is filed by the inmate; monthly payments of a certain amount for remaining court fees and costs after the initial payment for that suit; and certain costs not otherwise charged to the inmate under Section 14.006 (Court Fees, Court Costs, Other Costs), Civil Practice and Remedies Code, if the inmate has previously filed an action dismissed as malicious or frivolous.

(39) Fees for performing certain services.

Makes nonsubstantive changes.

SECTION 11. Repealer: Chapter 104 (Editorial Powers), Government Code.

SECTION 12. (a) Provides that Sections 1 through 10 of this Act amend provisions in Chapters 101, 102, and 103, Government Code, as amended by the Final Report Regarding Actions to Conform the Statutory Index of Court Fees and Costs to the Acts of the 78th Legislature. Provides that the report was effective September 3, 2004, and was prepared and published in accordance with Chapter 104 (Editorial Powers), Government Code, as it existed before the effective date of this Act. Provides where the report can be located on the internet.

(b) Sets forth the findings of the legislature that the index of the court fees and costs provided by Chapters 101, 102, and 103, Government Code, is complete with the passage of this Act and the publication of the report. Provides that the legislature also finds that additional reports under Chapter 104, Government Code, to update the index are no longer necessary because the updating will occur under the Texas Legislative Council's permanent statutory revision program. Requires the council, as part of the program, under Section 323.007(c)(4)(requiring the council to implement a continuous statutory revision program), Government Code, to formulate and implement a continuous revision program of all Texas statutes, which include the index of court fees and costs.

SECTION 13. Provides that if any provision of this Act conflicts with a statute enacted by the 79th Legislature, Regular Session, 2005, the statute controls.

SECTION 14. Effective date: September 1, 2005.
