AUTHOR'S/SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

The Texas State Board of Barber Examiners (board) and the Texas Cosmetology Commission (commission) regulate barbers and cosmetologists to protect the health and safety of the public. The agencies perform two major functions: licensing barbers and cosmetologists, instructors, shops, salons, and schools; and enforcing the Barber and Cosmetology Acts and agency rules by investigating complaints and conducting inspections.

The board currently regulates about 13,150 individuals and 8,000 entities, with a staff of 13, on an annual budget of about $600,000.

The commission currently regulates about 151,500 individuals and 8,000 entities, with a staff of 42, on an annual budget of about $2.3 million.

The board and the commission are subject to the Sunset Act and will be abolished on September 1, 2005, unless continued by the legislature. The sunset review found that the agencies are not effective in carrying out their regulatory duties, and that some aspects of the regulation of barbering and cosmetology did not protect the public and wasted resources.

S.B. 411 abolishes the board and the commission and transfers the agencies' functions to the Texas Department of Licensing and Regulation.
