AUTHOR'S/SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

The Texas gulf commercial shrimp industry is overcapitalized and there are abuses of the open access system. The industry has become flooded with market entrants and the profitability of the existing market participants has been jeopardized. Furthermore, a moratorium on shrimp licenses in federal waters (greater than 9.0 miles offshore) is anticipated, perhaps by the end of March 2005. The result of the federal moratorium will be to drive more shrimpers into the gulf waters; thus a license moratorium for Texas gulf shrimping is necessary to further limit the destabilization of the market for existing participants.

Current law does not allow for a license management program for the commercial gulf shrimp. In effect, any person can obtain a license to commercially harvest and sell gulf shrimp in Texas.

S.B. 454 allows regulation of the issuance and renewal of commercial gulf shrimp licenses based on historical participation in the fishery. This will provide greater economic stability in the industry.
