AUTHOR'S/SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

In the punishment phase of a capital case, the state often offers evidence of the defendant's bad acts, or "extraneous conduct." Normally, the state gives the defendant a notice of the "extraneous conduct" that will be presented into court as evidence.

S.B. 1507 formalizes the notice that is given to a defendant by providing that the introduction of evidence of extraneous conduct is governed by specific notice requirements in Article 37.07, Code of Criminal Procedure.
