C.S.H.B. No. 2750

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

relating to certain identifying information provided in connection with a decedent's estate or guardianship.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Section 3, Texas Probate Code, is amended by adding Subsection (nn) to read as follows:

(nn) "Identifying financial information" means a tax identification number or information, other than an individual's name, address, or driver's license number, that can be used to access an account at a bank, brokerage firm, or other financial institution, including an account number or a verification of that account number.

SECTION 2. Chapter I, Texas Probate Code, is amended by adding Section 36A to read as follows:

Sec. 36A. ACCESS TO CERTAIN IDENTIFYING INFORMATION MAINTAINED IN JUDICIAL RECORDS. (a) Notwithstanding Rule 12, Texas Rules of Judicial Administration, identifying information maintained under Section 36(b) of this code and identifying financial information ordered to be maintained in the judicial records under Section 250A, 399, or 405 of this code are confidential and may be used, inspected, or copied only by:

(1) the personal representative of the decedent;

(2) the person to whom the information pertains; or

(3) a person authorized to use, inspect, or copy the

1 information by a court order issued under this section.

2 (b) On written application, the court, with or without a
3 hearing, may enter an order that authorizes the following persons
4 to use, inspect, or copy another person's identifying financial 5 information or other identifying information maintained in the 6 judicial records of the court under Section 36(b), 250A, 399, or 405 7 of this code:

8 (1) an attorney or attorney ad litem;

9 (2) a party to a proceeding involving the decedent or 10 the decedent's estate;

11 (3) an heir or devisee of the decedent;

12 (4) law enforcement personnel; or

13 (5) any other person requesting access to the 14 information.

15 (c) A judge may not issue an order authorizing a person
16 described by Subsection (b)(5) of this section to have access to 17 another person's identifying financial information or other kind of 18 identifying information unless the judge finds that the person has 19 shown good cause for the use, inspection, or copying of the 20 information.

21 (d) The court may charge the applicant a reasonable fee not 22 to exceed actual costs for any copies provided under this section.

23 (e) To the extent that this section conflicts with the Texas
24 Rules of Judicial Administration or other rules, this section
25 controls. Notwithstanding Section 22.003, Government Code, the 26 supreme court may not amend or adopt rules in conflict with this 27 section.

1 SECTION 3. Part 1, Chapter VIII, Texas Probate Code, is 2 amended by adding Section 250A to read as follows:

3 Sec. 250A. LIMITED ACCESS TO IDENTIFYING FINANCIAL 4 INFORMATION. (a) On written application by the personal 5 representative of or a person interested in the estate, the court 6 may order and direct that identifying financial information of a 7 decedent or a decedent's estate that is required to be furnished for 8 purposes of the inventory under this part must be maintained in the 9 judicial files of the court. Identifying financial information
10 that is the subject of an order entered under this subsection may 11 not be filed with the clerk.

12 (b) An order issued under Subsection (a) of this section
13 must be accompanied by an information sheet containing the 14 identifying financial information referred to in the order and the 15 corresponding account information. As soon as practicable after 16 the date the judge issues the order, the personal representative 17 shall attach to the inventory and appraisement a statement 18 specifying that identifying financial information relevant to 19 information contained in the inventory and appraisement is being 20 held in the judicial records of the court.

21 (c) Except as otherwise provided by the court, an order
22 issued under Subsection (a) of this section is a standing order
23 applicable to any supplemental inventory and appraisement filed
24 under this part.

25 SECTION 4. Section 399, Texas Probate Code, is amended by 26 adding Subsection (e) to read as follows:

27 (e) Identifying Financial Information. (1) On written

1 application by the personal representative of or a person 2 interested in the estate, the court may order and direct that 3 identifying financial information of a decedent or a decedent's 4 estate that is required to be furnished for purposes of an annual 5 account required under this section must be maintained in the 6 judicial files of the court. Identifying financial information
7 that is the subject of an order entered under this subsection may 8 not be filed with the clerk.

9       (2) An order issued under Subdivision (1) of this 10 subsection must be accompanied by an information sheet containing 11 the identifying financial information referred to in the order and 12 the corresponding account information. As soon as practicable 13 after the date the court issues the order, the personal 14 representative shall attach to the account a statement specifying 15 that identifying financial information relevant to information 16 contained in the account is being held in the judicial records of 17 the court.

18       (3) Except as otherwise provided by the court, an 19 order issued under Subdivision (1) of this subsection is a standing 20 order that applies to all subsequent accounts filed by 21 representatives of estates under this section. The personal 22 representative must attach the statement described by Subdivision 23 (2) of this subsection to each subsequent account.

24       SECTION 5. Section 405, Texas Probate Code, is amended to 25 read as follows:

26       Sec. 405. ACCOUNT FOR FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ESTATES OF 27 DECEDENTS. (a) When administration of the estate of a decedent is

1 to be settled and closed, the personal representative of such 2 estate shall present to the court his verified account for final 3 settlement. In such account it shall be sufficient to refer to the 4 inventory without describing each item of property in detail, and 5 to refer to and adopt any and all proceedings had in the 6 administration concerning sales, renting or hiring, leasing for 7 mineral development, or any other transactions on behalf of the 8 estate including exhibits, accounts, and vouchers previously filed 9 and approved, without restating the particular items thereof. Each 10 final account, however, shall be accompanied by proper vouchers in 11 support of each item thereof not already accounted for and shall 12 show, either by reference to any proceedings authorized above or by 13 statement of the facts:

14 1. The property belonging to the estate which has come 15 into the hands of the executor or administrator.

16 2. The disposition that has been made of such 17 property.

18 3. The debts that have been paid.

19 4. The debts and expenses, if any, still owing by the 20 estate.

21 5. The property of the estate, if any, still remaining 22 on hand.

23 6. The persons entitled to receive such estate, their 24 relationship to the decedent, and their residence, if known, and 25 whether adults or minors, and, if minors, the names of their 26 guardians, if any.

27 7. All advancements or payments that have been made,

1 if any, by the executor or administrator from such estate to any 2 such person.

3 8. The tax returns due that have been filed and the 4 taxes due and owing that have been paid and a complete account of 5 the amount of taxes, the date the taxes were paid, and the 6 governmental entity to which the taxes were paid.

7 9. If any tax return due to be filed or any taxes due to 8 be paid are delinquent on the filing of the account, a description 9 of the delinquency and the reasons for the delinquency.

10 10. The personal representative has paid all required 11 bond premiums.

12 (b) On written application by the personal representative 13 of or any person interested in the estate, the court may order and 14 direct that identifying financial information of a decedent or a 15 decedent's estate that is required to be furnished for purposes of 16 the final account required under this section must be maintained in 17 the judicial files of the court. Identifying financial information
18 that is the subject of an order entered under this subsection may 19 not be filed with the clerk.

20 (c) An order issued under Subsection (b) of this section
21 must be accompanied by an information sheet containing the
22 identifying financial information referred to in the order and the 23 corresponding account information. As soon as practicable after 24 the date the court issues the order, the personal representative 25 shall attach to the final account a statement specifying that
26 identifying financial information relevant to information
27 contained in the final account is being held in the judicial records

1 of the court.

2 SECTION 6. Section 601, Texas Probate Code, is amended by 3 adding Subdivision (13-a) to read as follows:

4 (13-a) "Identifying financial information" means a 5 tax identification number or information, other than an 6 individual's name, address, or driver's license number, that can be 7 used to access an account at a bank, brokerage firm, or other 8 financial institution, including an account number or a 9 verification of that account number.

10 SECTION 7. Subpart I, Part 2, Chapter XIII, Texas Probate
11 Code, is amended by adding Section 671A to read as follows:

12 Sec. 671A. ACCESS TO CERTAIN IDENTIFYING INFORMATION
13 MAINTAINED IN JUDICIAL RECORDS. (a) Notwithstanding Rule 12, 14 Texas Rules of Judicial Administration, identifying information 15 maintained under Section 671(e) of this code and identifying 16 financial information ordered to be maintained in the judicial 17 records under Section 729A, 741, 749, or 871 of this code are 18 confidential and may be used, inspected, or copied only by:

19 (1) the guardian of the ward, if the information is 20 identifying information of the ward;

21 (2) the ward or other person to whom the information 22 pertains; or

23 (3) a person authorized to use, inspect, or copy the 24 information by a court order issued under this section.

25 (b) On written application, the court, with or without a
26 hearing, may enter an order that authorizes the following persons
27 to use, inspect, or copy another person's identifying financial

1 information or other identifying information maintained in the 2 judicial records of the court under Section 671(e), 729A, 741, 729, 3 or 871 of this code:

4 (1) an attorney, attorney ad litem, guardian, or 5 guardian ad litem;

6 (2) a party to a proceeding involving the ward or the 7 ward's estate;

8 (3) law enforcement personnel; or

9 (4) any other person requesting access to the 10 information.

11 (c) A judge may not issue an order authorizing a person
12 described by Subsection (b)(4) of this section to have access to 13 another person's identifying financial information or other kind of 14 identifying information unless the judge finds that the person has 15 shown good cause for the use, inspection, or copying of the 16 information.

17 (d) The court may charge the applicant a reasonable fee not 18 to exceed actual costs for any copies provided under this section.

19 (e) To the extent that this section conflicts with the Texas
20 Rules of Judicial Administration or other rules, this section
21 controls. Notwithstanding Section 22.003, Government Code, the 22 supreme court may not amend or adopt rules in conflict with this 23 section.

24 SECTION 8. Subpart A, Part 4, Chapter XIII, Texas Probate
25 Code, is amended by adding Section 729A to read as follows:

26 Sec. 729A. LIMITED ACCESS TO IDENTIFYING FINANCIAL 27 INFORMATION. (a) On written application by the ward's guardian or

1 a person interested in the welfare of the ward, the court may order 2 and direct that identifying financial information of a ward or the 3 ward's estate that is required to be furnished for purposes of the 4 inventory under this part must be maintained in the judicial files 5 of the court. Identifying financial information that is the 6 subject of an order entered under this subsection may not be filed 7 with the clerk.

8 (b) An order issued under Subsection (a) of this section
9 must be accompanied by an information sheet containing the 10 identifying financial information referred to in the order and the 11 corresponding account information. As soon as practicable after 12 the date the judge issues the order, the guardian of the estate 13 shall attach to the inventory and appraisal a statement
14 specifying that identifying financial information relevant to 15 information contained in the inventory and appraisal is being 16 held in the judicial records of the court.

17 (c) Except as otherwise provided by the court, an order
18 issued under Subsection (a) of this section is a standing order
19 applicable to any supplemental inventory and appraisal filed
20 under this part.

21 SECTION 9. Section 741, Texas Probate Code, is amended by 22 adding Subsections (h), (i), and (j) to read as follows:

23 (h) On written application by the ward's guardian or a
24 person interested in the welfare of the ward, the court may order
25 and direct that identifying financial information of a ward or the 26 ward's estate that is required to be furnished for purposes of an 27 annual account required under this section must be maintained in

1 the judicial files of the court. Identifying financial information
2 that is the subject of an order entered under this subsection may
3 not be filed with the clerk.

4 (i) An order issued under Subsection (h) of this section
5 must be accompanied by an information sheet containing the
6 identifying financial information referred to in the order and the 7 corresponding account information. As soon as practicable after 8 the date the court issues the order, the guardian of the estate 9 shall attach to the account a statement specifying that identifying 10 financial information relevant to information contained in the 11 account is being held in the judicial records of the court.

12 (j) Except as otherwise provided by the court, an order 13 issued under Subsection (h) of this section is a standing order that 14 applies to all subsequent accounts filed under this section. The 15 guardian must attach the statement described by Subsection (i) of 16 this section to each subsequent account.

17 SECTION 10. Section 749, Texas Probate Code, is amended to 18 read as follows:

19 Sec. 749. ACCOUNT FOR FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ESTATES OF WARDS.

20 (a) When a guardianship of the estate is required to be settled, 21 the guardian shall present to the court the guardian's verified
22 account for final settlement. In the account it shall be sufficient 23 to refer to the inventory without describing each item of property 24 in detail and to refer to and adopt any and all guardianship 25 proceedings that concern sales, renting or hiring, leasing for 26 mineral development, or any other transaction on behalf of the 27 guardianship estate, including an exhibit, account, or voucher

1 previously filed and approved, without restating the particular 2 items. Each final account shall be accompanied by proper vouchers 3 in support of each item not already accounted for and shall show, 4 either by reference to any proceedings authorized above or by 5 statement of the facts:

6 (1) the property, rents, revenues, and profits
7 received by the guardian, and belonging to the ward, during the term 8 of the guardianship;

9 (2) the disposition made of the property, rents,
10 revenues, and profits;

11 (3) the expenses and debts against the estate that 12 remain unpaid, if any;

13 (4) the property of the estate that remains in the 14 hands of the guardian, if any;

15 (5) that the guardian has paid all required bond 16 premiums;

17 (6) the tax returns the guardian has filed during the 18 guardianship;

19 (7) the amount of taxes the ward owed during the 20 guardianship that the guardian has paid;

21 (8) a complete account of the taxes the guardian has 22 paid during the guardianship, including the amount of the taxes, 23 the date the guardian paid the taxes, and the name of the 24 governmental entity to which the guardian paid the taxes;

25 (9) a description of all current delinquencies in the 26 filing of tax returns and the payment of taxes and a reason for each 27 delinquency; and

1 (10) other facts as appear necessary to a full and 2 definite understanding of the exact condition of the guardianship.

3 (b) On written application by the ward's guardian or any 4 person interested in the welfare of the ward, the court may order
5 and direct that identifying financial information of a ward or the 6 ward's estate that is required to be furnished for purposes of the 7 final account required under this section must be maintained in the 8 judicial files of the court. Identifying financial information
9 that is the subject of an order entered under this subsection may 10 not be filed with the clerk.

11 (c) An order issued under Subsection (b) of this section
12 must be accompanied by an information sheet containing the
13 identifying financial information referred to in the order and the 14 corresponding account information. As soon as practicable after 15 the date the court issues the order, the guardian of the estate
16 shall attach to the final account a statement specifying that 17 identifying financial information relevant to information
18 contained in the final account is being held in the judicial records
19 of the court.

20 SECTION 11. Section 871, Texas Probate Code, is amended by 21 adding Subsections (d), (e), and (f) to read as follows:

22 (d) On written application by the trustee or a person 23 interested in the welfare of the ward, the court may order and 24 direct that identifying financial information of a ward or the 25 ward's estate that is required to be furnished for purposes of an 26 annual accounting required under this section must be maintained in 27 the judicial files of the court. Identifying financial information

1 that is the subject of an order entered under this subsection may
2 not be filed with the clerk.

3 (e) An order issued under Subsection (d) of this section
4 must be accompanied by an information sheet containing the
5 identifying financial information referred to in the order and the 6 corresponding account information. As soon as practicable after 7 the date the court issues the order, the trustee shall attach to the 8 annual account a statement specifying that identifying financial 9 information relevant to information contained in the account is 10 being held in the judicial records of the court.

11 (f) Except as otherwise provided by the court, an order 12 issued under Subsection (d) of this section is a standing order that 13 applies to all subsequent annual accounts filed under this section.
14 The trustee must attach the statement described by Subsection (e) 15 of this section to each subsequent account.

16 SECTION 12. This Act takes effect September 1, 2005.
