

By: Davis of Harris

H.B. No. 3303

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

1
2 relating to emergency apprehension and detention of a person
3 believed to have a mental illness.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

5 SECTION 1. Section 573.001, Health and Safety Code, is 6 amended by adding Subsections (g) and (h) to read as follows:

7 (g) A peace officer shall take a person into custody and 8 transport that person as provided by Subsection (d) if a physician 9 represents to the officer that:

10 (1) the physician examined the person during the 11 preceding 24 hours; and

12 (2) based on the examination, the physician concludes 13 that the person is mentally ill and that, as demonstrated by the 14 person's behavior or by evidence of severe emotional distress and 15 deterioration in the person's mental condition, because of that 16 mental illness there is a substantial risk of serious harm to the 17 person or to others unless the person is immediately restrained.

18 (h) A physician shall provide to the peace officer the 19 physician's specific description of the risk of harm and a detailed 20 description of the specific relevant behavior, acts, attempts, or 21 threats by the person to be transported.

22 SECTION 2. Subchapter A, Chapter 573, Health and Safety
23 Code, is amended by adding Section 573.005 to read as follows:

24 Sec. 573.005. TRANSPORTATION AND APPLICATION FOR EMERGENCY

1 DETENTION BY PHYSICIAN. (a) A physician without the assistance of 2 a peace officer may transport or order the transportation of a
3 person to an inpatient mental health facility for a preliminary 4 examination in accordance with Section 573.021 if:

5 (1) the physician examined the person during the 6 preceding 24 hours; and

7 (2) based on the examination, the physician concludes
8 that the person is mentally ill and that, as demonstrated by the 9 person's behavior or by evidence of severe emotional distress and 10 deterioration in the person's mental condition, because of that 11 mental illness there is a substantial risk of serious harm to the 12 person or to others unless the person is immediately restrained.

13 (b) After transporting or ordering the transportation of a 14 person to a facility under this section, the physician immediately
15 shall file an application for detention with the facility.

16 (c) The application for detention must contain a statement 17 that:

18 (1) the physician examined the person during the 19 preceding 24 hours;

20 (2) based on the examination, the physician concludes
21 that the person is mentally ill and that, as demonstrated by the 22 person's behavior or by evidence of severe emotional distress and 23 deterioration in the person's mental condition, because of that 24 mental illness there is a substantial risk of serious harm to the 25 person or to others unless the person is immediately restrained; 26 and

27 (3) provides a specific description of the risk of

1 harm and a detailed description of the specific relevant behavior,
2 acts, attempts, or threats by the person to be detained.

3 SECTION 3. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives 4 a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as 5 provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this 6 Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this 7 Act takes effect September 1, 2005.