

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, The colorful history of the Lone Star State is 2 inextricably associated with the romance of cowboy culture, and 3 among the many legacies of this proud heritage is the delicious flat 4 bread known as pan de campo, or cowboy bread; and

5 WHEREAS, Relied on by early settlers and vaqueros to sustain 6 themselves as they rode the range, pan de campo has transcended its 7 humble origins to take a place of honor at such events as the Pan de
8 Campo celebration that is sponsored annually by the San Diego
9 Chamber of Commerce in Duval County; and

10 WHEREAS, With thousands of participants and spectators, the 11 celebration includes such events as softball and volleyball
12 tournaments, a parade and live Tejano music, and the pan de campo 13 cook-off; and

14 WHEREAS, The chefs who make contemporary variations on pan de 15 campo recognize that cowboy bread's appeal lies not only in its 16 elegant simplicity but also in its role as a redolent reminder of 17 the state's storied past and the vaqueros of South Texas; and

18 WHEREAS, Because the cowboys who introduced pan de campo to 19 Texas had no access to conventional kitchens, the bread was 20 prepared in small portable ovens, and it was this distinctive 21 cooking method that gave pan de campo its characteristic texture 22 and flavor; and

23 WHEREAS, Pan de campo enjoys a singular stature in Texas
24 history and culture that is rivaled only by its undeniable appeal as

H.C.R. No. 98

1 a versatile and satisfying food, and it is only right and proper 2 that this essential element of the state's greatness receive
3 official recognition; now, therefore, be it

4 RESOLVED, That the 79th Legislature of the State of Texas
5 hereby designate pan de campo the Official State Bread of Texas.

Guillen

President of the Senate

Speaker of the House

I certify that H.C.R. No. 98 was adopted by the House on May 13, 2005, by a non-record vote.

Chief Clerk of the House

I certify that H.C.R. No. 98 was adopted by the Senate on May 25, 2005, by a viva-voce vote.

Secretary of the Senate

APPROVED: _____

Date

Governor