

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1           WHEREAS, The citizens of West Texas lost a widely esteemed
2 lawman with the passing of Clayton McKinney of Midland on August 20, 3 2004, at the age of 64; and

4           WHEREAS, A native of the Big Bend area, Mr. McKinney was born
5 in Marathon on June 4, 1940; early in his career he worked as a pilot
6 and game warden, stationed in Van Horn with the Texas Parks and 7 Wildlife Department; while associated with that agency, he played a
8 key role in the restoration of pronghorn antelope to the Big Bend 9 region; and

10           WHEREAS, After leaving Texas Parks and Wildlife, Mr. McKinney
11 embarked on a stellar 16-year career with the Texas Rangers; based 12 in Sierra Blanca from 1969 to 1977 and in Alpine from 1977 to 1985,
13 he established effective working relationships with law
14 enforcement officers in Mexico; as a result, he was able to achieve 15 a significant reduction in drug traffic and to recover a 16 substantial amount of stolen property that had been taken across 17 the border; and

18           WHEREAS, Because of the regard in which Mr. McKinney was held 19 and his familiarity with the region, both James A. Michener and 20 Larry McMurtry asked that he guide them through the Big Bend country
21 in preparation for their respective books, Texas and Lonesome Dove; 22 and

23           WHEREAS, In recognition of his outstanding work with the 24 Texas Rangers, Mr. McKinney was named the 1978 Big Bend Law

1 Enforcement Officer of the Year by the Big Bend Law Enforcement
2 Officers Association, and he was also inducted into the Texas
3 Ranger Hall of Fame; and

4 WHEREAS, Clayton McKinney retired from the Texas Rangers in 5 1985 and joined the Midland County Sheriff's Office as a lieutenant 6 in the Criminal Investigation Division; over the ensuing months, he 7 supervised the clearing of more than 200 burglary cases, an 8 accomplishment that led to a marked reduction in illicit narcotics
9 activity; in 1987 he instituted a five-year-long series of reverse
10 sting operations, which resulted in the arrest of approximately 40 11 individuals thought to be major drug offenders and in the seizure of 12 currency and property worth approximately $10 million; and

13 WHEREAS, For his successes in combating the illegal drug
14 trade, he was named the 1986 Greg McFarlin-Max Banks Law
15 Enforcement Officer of the Year by the Sheriffs' Association of 16 Texas and, in 1987, designated the 200 Club Law Enforcement Officer 17 of the Year by the 200 Club of Midland; and

18 WHEREAS, Promoted to chief deputy in 1996, Mr. McKinney was 19 instrumental in resolving a nationally publicized hostage
20 situation in Fort Davis in 1997; in the wake of that incident, the 21 Midland County Sheriff's Office established S.T.A.R., Sheriffs of 22 Texas Agreed Response, to better prepare sheriffs' offices around 23 the state to respond to natural or man-made disasters; as head of 24 the program, Mr. McKinney directed the coordinated training of 25 numerous sheriff's deputies and the distribution of surplus 26 military equipment to many sheriffs' departments; and

27 WHEREAS, After more than three decades in the law enforcement

1 profession, Mr. McKinney retired from the Midland County Sheriff's 2 Office in 2002 and joined NCS Pearson, Inc.; in his new capacity, he 3 helped to evaluate airport security across the nation; and

4 WHEREAS, During those years he also worked on a project to 5 build a new, county-owned prison in Hudspeth County; that facility, 6 the West Texas Detention Center--Ranger Clayton McKinney Unit, was 7 dedicated on August 14, 2004; Mr. McKinney was further honored by 8 Midland College, which has established a law enforcement 9 scholarship in his name; and

10 WHEREAS, This acclaimed law officer was the husband of Jean 11 McKinney and the father of three sons, all of whom followed him into 12 the field of law enforcement; and

13 WHEREAS, Throughout his long and distinguished career,
14 Clayton McKinney exemplified the highest ideals of his profession 15 and contributed immeasurably to the safety and well-being of 16 countless fellow citizens; now, therefore, be it

17 RESOLVED, That the 79th Legislature of the State of Texas
18 hereby pay special tribute to the memory of Clayton McKinney and 19 extend deepest sympathy to the members of his family: to his wife, 20 Jean McKinney; to his sons and their spouses, Clay McKinney and his 21 wife, Brenda, Troy McKinney and his wife, Kim, and Rory McKinney and 22 his wife, Katrina; to his grandchildren, Clay Ryon, Jake, Sarah, 23 Brooke, Clayton, Hannah, Ember, Ethan, and Evan; to his brother,
24 Billy Pat McKinney; to his sister, Midge Gooch; and to his other 25 relatives and many friends; and, be it further

26 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 27 prepared for the members of his family and that when the Texas House

H.C.R. No. 126

1 of Representatives and Senate adjourn this day, they do so in memory
2 of Clayton McKinney.
