9 international acclaim, Ms. Lee was honored with more than 1,250
10 exhibitions of her work; she also amassed an important collection
11 of art and made significant donations to a number of museums, 12 including the McNay Art Museum and the San Antonio Museum of Art; an 13 early supporter of the Witte Museum, a member of the Incarnate Word 14 College Fine Arts Advisory Council, and a charter member of The 15 University of Texas College of Fine Arts Council, this dedicated 16 patron of the arts was also a founder of the San Antonio Art League 17 and the Texas Watercolor Society; and

18           WHEREAS, Amy Freeman Lee delivered thousands of lectures 19 during her lifetime that invariably stressed her conviction in the 20 importance of civility and humanity, and her razor-sharp wit and 21 inspiring eloquence made her one of the most popular speakers in the 22 state; she was a respected writer and art critic as well, authoring 23 four books and writing for hundreds of publications; and

24           WHEREAS, Perhaps her most important legacy lies in the

1 abundant support, creativity, and leadership she offered to 2 countless groups; deeply committed to literacy, education, and the 3 liberal arts, she served as the head of the board of trustees of 4 Incarnate Word College from 1973 to 1990, nurturing the school's 5 programs in music, art, and theater, and as a member of the board of 6 the San Antonio Lighthouse for the Blind and chairman of the board
7 of Wilhelm Schole International, avidly championing its Teacher
8 Training Institute in Houston, and she was additionally known as a 9 strong supporter of the nursing profession; one of the principal 10 founders of the San Antonio Symphony, she was also a member of the 11 board of the Humane Society of the United States, which conferred on 12 her its highest honor, the Joseph Wood Krutch Medal, in 1985; and

13 WHEREAS, In addition, Ms. Lee was the recipient of 14 innumerable other awards and honors, including the Maury Maverick
15 Award from the American Civil Liberties Union, a lifetime 16 achievement award from the University Round Table, and the 17 Imperishable Star Award, a lifetime honor conveyed by Wilhelm 18 Schole International; a recipient of the first Living Treasure of 19 San Antonio Award for Outstanding Achievement as Artist, Scholar, 20 Humanist and The Woman That Makes a Difference Award presented by 21 the International Women's Forum, she was also elected to the Texas 22 Women's Hall of Fame; and

23 WHEREAS, A crusader against racism and discrimination from 24 her earliest years, she fought for racial and social equality in San 25 Antonio, urging fellow board members of cultural organizations to 26 reach out to the Hispanic and African American communities;
27 moreover, she was appointed by the Supreme Court of Texas to serve

1 on the Grievance Oversight Committee, Lawyer Discipline
2 Commission, and was elected to the board of trustees of the Texas
3 Center for Legal Ethics and Professionalism; and

4 WHEREAS, Amy Freeman Lee lived her life in service to the 5 arts, education, and humanitarianism, truly making a profound
6 difference in her community and beyond; although this remarkable
7 Texas lady will be sorely missed, the legacy of strength, 8 intelligence, courage, compassion, and selflessness that she 9 leaves behind will continue to inspire others for many years to 10 come; now, therefore, be it

11 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 79th Texas
12 Legislature hereby pay tribute to the life of Amy Freeman Lee and 13 that sincere sympathy be extended to her family: to her foster
14 daughter, Marilyn Wilhelm, and her goddaughter, Carol Karotkin; to 15 her second cousin, Maxine "Jackie" Goodwin; and to her many dear
16 friends and admirers throughout the state and the nation; and, be it 17 further
