1 WHEREAS, The Texas Historical Commission has designated
2 Santa Maria Cemetery in Pflugerville a Historic Texas Cemetery, and 3 the official marker, which is being dedicated on February 12, 2005,
4 will stand as an enduring symbol of the local citizenry's 5 commitment to preserving our state's rich history; and

6 WHEREAS, Santa Maria Cemetery was established in 1924 by a
7 group of Mexican families who had traveled north to escape the 8 Mexican Revolution of 1910; and

9 WHEREAS, While awaiting the outcome of the war, the Mexican 10 expatriates found work on local farms, but were unable to obtain 11 burial insurance; to defer funeral expenses, the families formed a 12 local chapter of the Sociedad de Agricultores Mariano Escobedo, an 13 organization created to help Mexicans residing in the United 14 States; through fund-raisers and donations, the chapter collected 15 $100 and purchased an acre of property for the cemetery from local 16 landowner LaRue Noton; and

17 WHEREAS, Most of those original families remained in the 18 region, and today, many of the names on the graves of Santa Maria
19 Cemetery continue to be prominent in Central Texas; the cemetery
20 was originally called San Camilo in honor of Camilo Mercado, the 21 first person to be buried there, but it was renamed Santa Maria in 22 1965; and
