

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, The certain knowledge of a life well lived may 2 temper the profound sadness that the passing of the Honorable
3 Horacio Sabas Ramirez of Hebbronville, on March 6, 2005, brings to 4 all who loved this respected civic leader; and

5           WHEREAS, Born on December 5, 1922, Judge Ramirez was raised 6 in his hometown of Hebbronville, a city forever changed by the 7 countless contributions of a single man; and

8           WHEREAS, A distinguished alumnus of Hebbronville High
9 School, he was accepted at St. Mary's University in San Antonio;
10 before he could finish his education, however, he chose to answer 11 his country's call to arms after the events at Pearl Harbor; and

12           WHEREAS, He enlisted in the U.S. Army Air Force, and his 13 heroic efforts as a tail gunner in the 444th Squadron, 320th
14 Bombardment Group, earned him a host of honors, including the U.S.
15 Air Force Air Medal, the EAME Campaign Medal, and the prestigious 16 Croix de Guerre avec Palme; and

17           WHEREAS, Returning to the Lone Star State after his 18 discharge, Judge Ramirez resumed his studies at St. Mary's 19 University, ultimately receiving his undergraduate degree and 20 attending St. Mary's Law School; and

21           WHEREAS, This esteemed Texan worked with the U.S. Department
22 of Agriculture and as his county's veterans service officer before 23 joining the Texas Department of Public Welfare; committed to the 24 health and well-being of all Hebbronville residents, he became

1 active in civic affairs and worked to improve the town's sewer and 2 water drainage difficulties; and

3 WHEREAS, His efforts expedited the establishment of the 4 county's second water control and improvement district, and he 5 became the first elected president of its board; he ably presided
6 over the group during its formative years and helped to bring 7 necessary changes to the town's infrastructure; and

8 WHEREAS, Judge Ramirez went on to serve as the Jim Hogg county 9 and district clerk and as county auditor before beginning his 10 illustrious service as county judge in 1987; as the highest elected 11 official in the county, he earned the respect and admiration of his 12 community, keeping the budget balanced and working for the 13 continued paving and drainage of local streets, rehabilitation of 14 homes for the needy, improvements to the sewage and wastewater 15 systems, and development of a recycling plant, nursing home, senior 16 citizen services center, area food bank, recreation hall, and new 17 INS facility; and

18 WHEREAS, Above all else, Judge Ramirez dedicated himself to 19 his beloved wife, Angiolina, and children; blessed with a marriage 20 that spanned more than half a century and six cherished sons and 21 daughters, he was supported in all of his endeavors by his 22 close-knit family; and

23 WHEREAS, Horacio Ramirez built a brighter future for the 24 community he was proud to call home, and though his special presence 25 will be deeply missed, his memory will long endure; now, therefore,
26 be it

27 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 79th Texas
