

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, Myra Brown Robinson of Big Spring is being inducted
2 into the Petroleum Hall of Fame on April 14, 2005, at the Petroleum
3 Museum in Midland; and

4           WHEREAS, The Petroleum Hall of Fame recognizes individuals 5 who have made significant contributions to the development of the 6 petroleum industry and impacted their communities through civic and 7 social involvement; and

8           WHEREAS, Myra Brown Robinson was born in Fort Worth in 1919 to 9 Flora and John Brown and lived on the Triangle Ranch in Mitchell 10 County until she reached school age and moved to Colorado City; she 11 graduated from Colorado High School in 1937 and attended the 12 University of California at Los Angeles before returning home to 13 work for the U.S. Department of Agriculture; in 1942, she married 14 G. R. "Bob" Robinson, who founded the Robinson Drilling Company in 15 1947 with his father, Glenn Robinson, and Mrs. Robinson as 16 bookkeeper and payroll clerk; the family business developed leases
17 in Scurry, Mitchell, and Garza Counties and moved its headquarters 18 to Big Spring in 1966; and

19           WHEREAS, After her husband's untimely death in 1972, Mrs.
20 Robinson quickly learned all aspects of the business and took over 21 the company operations; she became one of the few women in the 22 country to lead a drilling company, and for more than 30 years, she 23 has kept up with changing technology, upgrading from nitroglycerin 24 shoots to 3-D seismic operations; now known as Robinson Drilling of

1 Texas, the company has drilled more than 1,500 wells totaling over 2 13 million feet under her direction; and

3 WHEREAS, Today, Mrs. Robinson is known for her energetic 4 leadership, strong character, fiscal responsibility, and 5 unwavering loyalty to her employees; she was the first woman
6 selected by the Permian Basin Petroleum Association for its Top
7 Hand Award, representing a lifetime of personal and professional 8 achievement; her commitment to her community has been amply 9 demonstrated by her service as an elder of Big Spring's First 10 Presbyterian Church, as a board member of the Salvation Army,
11 Schreiner College, Presbyterian Church Foundation, and Texas
12 Presbyterian Foundation, and as a member of the Petroleum Museum, 13 Samaritan Counseling Center, and Howard College Foundation; she has 14 also been named Big Spring's Woman of the Year and received the 15 Samaritan Counseling Center's Ethics in Business Award; and

16 WHEREAS, The beloved mother of our esteemed colleague, 17 Representative Myra Crownover, Myra Brown Robinson holds the 18 distinction of being only the second woman ever elected to the 19 Petroleum Hall of Fame; her achievements as an industry and 20 community leader have distinguished her among the members of her
21 profession, and she is indeed deserving of this prestigious award;
22 now, therefore, be it

23 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 79th Texas
24 Legislature hereby congratulate Myra Brown Robinson on her
25 induction into the Petroleum Hall of Fame and commend her for her 26 outstanding professional accomplishments and civic contributions;
27 and, be it further

H.R. No. 843

1           RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 2 prepared for Mrs. Robinson as an expression of high regard by the 3 Texas House of Representatives.
