

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, Texas Nameplate Company, Inc., has received the 2 Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award for the second time in a 3 decade, and this extraordinary achievement merits reflection on the 4 past and present of this remarkable company; and

5           WHEREAS, Texas Nameplate is the smallest company to win the 6 Baldrige, the nation's only presidential award for organizational 7 excellence and quality; with just under 40 employees and a modest
8 $3.2 million in revenue in 2004, this Dallas-based business 9 produces metal nameplates, identification tags, and labels for 10 high-pressure valves and other technical equipment, employing many 11 of the same techniques used nearly 60 years ago, including 12 fine-point etching, screen printing, and photoengraving; and

13           WHEREAS, Dedicated to efficiency and strategic management, 14 Roy Crownover founded Texas Nameplate in 1946, and he is still 15 actively involved in its operation; his son, Dale Crownover, acts 16 as president and chief executive officer and is traveling to 17 Washington, D.C., in March 2005 to accept the 2004 award from 18 President George W. Bush; Mr. Crownover attributes the company's 19 achievements to its commitment to quality over quantity; and

20           WHEREAS, Seven years ago, when Texas Nameplate received its 21 first Baldrige award for excellence, the company was a larger 22 enterprise, but Dale Crownover knew the key to an efficient
23 business was not the size of its staff or the heft of its bank 24 account, and he reduced its growth in 1998; as a result, the

1 company is more profitable, sees fewer customer complaints and less
2 employee turnover, and incurs lower costs for materials; with 80
3 percent repeat customers, the organization prides itself on its 4 employee cross-training program and its in-house intranet system, 5 which keeps track of production; and

6 WHEREAS, Mr. Crownover's resolute commitment to producing an 7 exceptional product led to his company's receipt of the Texas-based 8 Baby Baldrige in 1996; the Texas Association of Business and 9 Chambers of Commerce named the family-owned enterprise its 1997
10 Business of the Year; since then, Texas Nameplate has justly
11 received two national Baldrige awards, one of only three businesses 12 to earn the award twice; and

13 WHEREAS, Texas Nameplate Company has met the challenges 14 facing all businesses by reinventing its strategies to promote 15 efficiency, customer satisfaction, and employee retention; this 16 small Texas firm is a model of success and integrity, and it should 17 be heartily applauded for its dedication to quality and excellence;
18 now, therefore, be it

19 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 79th Texas
20 Legislature hereby congratulate Roy and Dale Crownover and the 21 staff of Texas Nameplate Company, Inc., on their receipt of the 2004
22 Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award and commend them on their 23 outstanding business achievements; and, be it further

24 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 25 prepared for the company as an expression of high regard by the 26 Texas House of Representatives.
