H.R. No. 1114

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, Throughout our history, innovation,
2 entrepreneurship, and the spirit of free enterprise have been the 3 cornerstones of this nation's economic development; and

4 WHEREAS, Recognizing that these qualities are as important to 5 the future of the United States as they have been in the past,
6 Junior Achievement has been a tireless promoter of the free
7 enterprise system and an educator for the leaders of tomorrow since 8 its inception in 1919; and

9 WHEREAS, Junior Achievement employs a combination of 10 traditional classroom learning and valuable hands-on experiences 11 to help students from kindergarten through high school gain an 12 appreciation of the role played by economics in our daily lives; and

13 WHEREAS, With nine offices in the Lone Star State and 16,000
14 dedicated volunteers from all walks of life, Junior Achievement has 15 reached more than 350,000 students statewide; and

16 WHEREAS, By informing young Texans of the importance of free
17 enterprise to the well-being of our state and nation, Junior 18 Achievement is helping to ensure their future success as business
19 and community leaders; now, therefore, be it

20 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 79th Texas
21 Legislature hereby recognize April 12, 2005, as Junior Achievement
22 Day at the State Capitol and encourage all Texans to foster economic 23 education among our youth.
