

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, An 80th birthday of an esteemed Texan is truly cause
2 for celebration, and on May 11, 2005, John Phillips Gayle, Jr., of 3 West Columbia marked this significant milestone in his long and 4 productive life; and

5           WHEREAS, Mr. Gayle is closely tied to the beginnings of this 6 great state as he is a direct descendant of Emily Austin Bryan, the 7 daughter of Moses Austin and sister of Stephen F. Austin; born in 8 Brazoria County to John Phillips Gayle, Sr., and Lavinia Brock
9 Gayle, he has lived in the place "where Texas began" all his life; 10 and

11           WHEREAS, He married the love of his life, the late Doris 12 Fussell Gayle, on April 25, 1944, and their rewarding marriage was 13 richly blessed with three children, Lavinia Gayle Sartwelle, the 14 late John Benton Gayle, and Regina Gayle Locke, along with six 15 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren, and his devotion to his 16 loving family has always been paramount to him; and

17           WHEREAS, A lifelong rancher of Brahman and Brahman crossbred 18 cattle, he also farmed rice for several years and worked with the 19 Texas Department of Agriculture as a livestock export specialist;
20 he was appointed by President John F. Kennedy to serve on the ASCS
21 Committee for Texas before serving admirably as a county
22 commissioner of Brazoria County for 24 years; he also served as a 23 member and president of the South Texas County Judges and 24 Commissioners Association Board; and

1           WHEREAS, Mr. Gayle is keenly interested in the history of his 2 community and was extensively involved in the restoration of the 3 first capitol of Texas in West Columbia; he played a key role in 4 securing a historical marker for the actual location where Stephen
5 F. Austin died and worked tirelessly for a monument for servicemen 6 from West Columbia who served their country during times of war; and

7           WHEREAS, He is a great supporter of the Columbia EMS and 8 Columbia Cemetery Association and has been a benefactor to almost 9 every civic group in the city, devoting both financial and personal 10 support to benefit the people of this area of the Lone Star State;
11 and

12           WHEREAS, Throughout his life, John Phillips Gayle, Jr., has 13 made a positive impact on his community; he is an inspiration to 14 those who have known him, and it is a distinct pleasure to join his 15 loving family and many friends as they gather to honor this devoted 16 Texan in West Columbia on May 21, 2005; now, therefore, be it

17           RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 79th Texas
18 Legislature hereby warmly congratulate John Phillips Gayle, Jr., on 19 the momentous occasion of his 80th birthday and extend to him
20 heartfelt best wishes for continued happiness; and, be it further

21           RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 22 prepared for Mr. Gayle as an expression of high regard by the Texas
23 House of Representatives.
