

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, In April of each year, National Crime Victims'
2 Rights Week is sponsored by criminal justice and victim service
3 practitioners as an occasion to publicize and affirm the rights of 4 those who suffer as victims of violent crime; and

5 WHEREAS, During this week, many public education and 6 community awareness activities are sponsored to help the citizens
7 of Texas understand the experience of crime victims and to learn 8 about the many critical services available to those who fall prey to 9 criminal offenders; and

10 WHEREAS, Violent crime affects the lives of countless Texans 11 each year, and it is crucial that all citizens be fully aware of 12 their legal rights and the full range of services available to crime
13 victims, for only in this way can the criminal justice system secure 14 the rights of the innocent as well as the guilty; and

15 WHEREAS, It is entirely fitting that the Texas House of 16 Representatives lend its full support to this worthy observance and 17 make every effort to promote greater awareness of crime victims'
18 rights in every jurisdiction of this state; now, therefore, be it

19 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 79th Texas
20 Legislature hereby commend the many dedicated professionals and 21 volunteers who are working to secure rights and services for the 22 victims of crime and urge all Texans to observe the week of April 24
23 through May 1, 2006, as National Crime Victims' Rights Week.

Alonzo

H.R. No. 2230

Speaker of the House

I certify that H.R. No. 2230 was adopted by the House on May 29, 2005, by a non-record vote.

Chief Clerk of the House