AN ACT

relating to the required use of towing safety chains on certain vehicles.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Subsection (a), Section 545.410, Transportation Code, is amended to read as follows:

(a) An operator of a passenger car or light truck may not draw a trailer, semitrailer, house trailer, or another motor vehicle unless safety chains of a type approved by the department are attached in a manner approved by the department from the trailer, semitrailer, house trailer, or drawn motor vehicle to the drawing vehicle. The department by rule shall exempt certain types of trailers that exhibit adequate safety standards from the requirements of this subsection [~~This subsection does not apply to the drawing of a trailer or semitrailer used for agricultural purposes~~].

SECTION 2. (a) The change in law made by this Act applies only to an offense committed on or after the effective date of this Act. For purposes of this section, an offense is committed before the effective date of this Act if any element of the offense occurs before that date.

(b) An offense committed before the effective date of this Act is covered by the law in effect when the offense was committed, and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose.

1 SECTION 3. This Act takes effect September 1, 2005.
