1-10 relating to the authority of the Texas Juvenile Probation
1-11 Commission to issue subpoenas, administer oaths, receive evidence,
1-12 and gather information.

1-13 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

1-14 SECTION 1. Subchapter C, Chapter 141, Human Resources Code,
1-15 is amended by adding Section 141.0461 to read as follows:

1-16 Sec. 141.0461. AUTHORITY TO ISSUE SUBPOENAS, ADMINISTER
1-17 OATHS, RECEIVE EVIDENCE, AND GATHER INFORMATION. (a) The 1-18 commission may issue a subpoena requiring the attendance of a
1-19 witness or the production of any record, book, paper, document,
1-20 data, or other evidence maintained by electronic or other means
1-21 that the commission considers necessary for the investigation of 1-22 abuse, neglect or exploitation allegations, complaints, financial 1-23 and programmatic audits, or any matter under the authority of the 1-24 commission. The commission may issue a subpoena under this 1-25 subsection only if the subpoena is signed by at least two members of 1-26 the commission.

1-27 (b) Any peace officer, commission investigator, other
1-28 commission official, or person authorized under Article 24.01, Code
1-29 of Criminal Procedure, may serve the subpoena in the same manner as 1-30 similar process in a court of record having original jurisdiction
1-31 of criminal actions is served.

1-32 (c) Under this section, subpoenas shall be served and 1-33 witness fees and mileage paid as in civil cases in the district
1-34 court in the county to which the witness is called, unless the 1-35 proceeding for which the service or payment is made is pursuant to 1-36 Chapter 2001, Government Code, in which case the service or payment
1-37 shall be made as provided by that chapter. The commission shall pay 1-38 the fees and mileage of a witness subpoenaed at the instance of the 1-39 commission out of funds appropriated for that purpose.

1-40 (d) On application of the commission, a court of record
1-41 having original jurisdiction of criminal actions may compel the 1-42 attendance of a witness, the production of material, or the giving 1-43 of testimony before the commission by an attachment for contempt or 1-44 in the same manner as the court may otherwise compel the production
1-45 of evidence.

1-46 (e) The chairman or another member of the commission may 1-47 administer an oath to a witness in attendance before the commission
1-48 or before an authorized representative of the commission.

1-49 (f) If a witness in attendance before the commission or 1-50 before an authorized representative of the commission refuses 1-51 without reasonable cause to be examined or answer a legal or 1-52 pertinent question, or to produce a book, record, paper, document,
1-53 data, or other evidence maintained by electronic or other means
1-54 when ordered by the commission to do so, the commission may apply to 1-55 the district court for a rule or order returnable in not fewer than 1-56 two or more than five days, directing the witness to show cause
1-57 before the judge why the witness should not be punished for 1-58 contempt. The commission may apply to the district court of any 1-59 county in which the witness is in attendance, on proof by affidavit
1-60 of the fact, unless the order of contempt is sought under Chapter
1-61 2001, Government Code, in which case the commission shall apply to a 1-62 district court of Travis County in conformity with that chapter. On 1-63 return of the order, the judge hearing the matter shall examine the witness under oath, and the witness shall be given an opportunity to be heard. If the judge determines that the witness has refused, without reasonable cause or legal excuse, to be examined or answer a legal or pertinent question, or to produce a book, record, paper, document, data, or other evidence maintained by electronic or other means that the witness was ordered to bring or produce, the judge may punish the offender as for contempt of court.

(g) The commission shall be granted access at any reasonable time to any books, records, papers, documents, data, or other evidence maintained by electronic or other means that is related to any matter the commission or executive director considers necessary to administer the commission's functions, powers, and duties.
