

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 199

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to recognize the Young Conservatives of Texas on the occasion of the organization's 25th anniversary; and

WHEREAS, A group of 177 students met in Austin on Texas Independence Day, March 2, 1980, to establish the Young Conservatives of Texas; the organization was founded to attract individuals from the mainstream who believe in a conservative form of government; and

WHEREAS, Now a strong force on college campuses throughout the state, the Young Conservatives of Texas regularly hosts speakers on a wide array of topics, ranging from foreign policy to taxes to affirmative action; the organization is also well known for inspiring young people in our state to become involved with politics and for maintaining an active presence as a lobby at the Texas Legislature; and

WHEREAS, The members of the Young Conservatives of Texas have consistently worked hard for the principles in which they believe, and they have contributed their time and energy to many political campaigns; and

WHEREAS, On March 2, 2005, the members of the Young Conservatives of Texas will observe their 25th anniversary; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 79th Legislature, hereby congratulate the members of the Young Conservatives of Texas on their hard work and their accomplishments and extend best wishes to all on the occasion of the organization's anniversary; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for the Young Conservatives of Texas as an expression of esteem from the Texas Senate.

Nelson

President of the Senate

I hereby certify that the above Resolution was adopted by the Senate on February 21, 2005.
