

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 557

WHEREAS, The Texas Senate is pleased to recognize March 1, 2005, as Community Development Day at the Capitol in honor of the service provided across the state by nonprofit affordable housing providers and community economic development organizations and on the occasion of the annual conference, which takes place in Austin today; and

WHEREAS, Affordable housing providers and community economic development nonprofit corporations assist hardworking, low-income families across Texas to obtain decent housing, gain access to capital, and enter into the economic mainstream of the state; and

WHEREAS, The 2005 Community Development Conference will help community development practitioners to better provide affordable housing and community economic development services in times of economic hardship; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 79th Legislature, hereby recognize all nonprofit community development practitioners and extend best wishes to them for a highly successful and fruitful Community Development Day at the Capitol; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared in honor of all attending the 2005 Community Development Conference.

Lucio

President of the Senate

I hereby certify that the above Resolution was adopted by the Senate on April 6, 2005.
