

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 794

In Memory
of
Norman Lee Malone

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas joins the citizens of La Porte in mourning the loss of Norman Lee Malone, who died on April 30, 2004, at the age of 76; and

WHEREAS, Born on July 23, 1927, Norman Malone "Notche" served as mayor of the City of La Porte for almost 20 years, and he was considered one of the city's most popular public servants; and

WHEREAS, Norman Malone earned a bachelor of science degree and a master's degree in education from the University of Houston; he shared a long and loving marriage with Ann Malone, and the couple was blessed with three children; and

WHEREAS, He worked for Shell Chemical for 11 years and retired from the Pasadena Independent School District after 30 years of service, including 17 years as a vocational director; and

WHEREAS, Prior to serving as the mayor of La Porte, Norman was the mayor of the City of Lomax from 1975 through 1980; after that city was consolidated with La Porte, he served on the La Porte City Council until 1985, when he became La Porte's mayor; he won all subsequent elections to the position and was still mayor of La Porte at the time of his death; and

WHEREAS, Mayor Malone was beloved and respected by the people of La Porte; he served as La Porte's voice of leadership during numerous key periods in its development and was dedicated to his work on behalf of the city and its citizens; and

WHEREAS, Norman Malone lived his life to the fullest and was a devoted husband and father, and he leaves behind memories that will be treasured forever by his family and many friends; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 79th Legislature, hereby extend sincere condolences to the bereaved family of Norman Malone: his wife of 53 years, Mary Ann Uloth Malone; his sons, Scott and Todd Malone; his daughter, Georgia Malone; his brother, James Vernon "Paddy" Malone; and his four grandchildren; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for the members of his family as an expression of deepest sympathy from the Texas Senate, and that when the Senate adjourns this day, it do so in memory of Norman Malone.

Jackson

President of the Senate

I hereby certify that the above Resolution was adopted by the Senate on May 5, 2005, by a rising vote.

Secretary of the Senate

Member, Texas Senate