Fiscal Analysis

The bill would amend the Government Code to allow a renewed concealed handgun license to expire on the license holder's birthdate five years after the expiration date of the previous license. Under current law, licenses expire in four years. The bill would apply only to those licenses renewed on or after September 1, 2005. The bill would take effect September 1, 2005.

Methodology

The Comptroller of Public Accounts and the Department of Public Safety report that concealed handgun licenses are renewed at an average fee of $68.20. Under current law, an estimated 33,552 licenses can be expected to be renewed in fiscal year 2010. Under the provisions of the bill, these renewals would not occur until fiscal year 2011, causing a loss of $2,288,000 to the General Revenue Fund in fiscal year 2010 [$68.20 X 33,552].

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
