

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 79TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 30, 2005

TO: Honorable Kent Grusendorf, Chair, House Committee on Public Education

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Deputy Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB621 by Olivo (Relating to training of school district peace officers and security personnel in certain discipline management practices and behavior management techniques.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

This bill would require school resource officers, peace officers, and security personnel to receive appropriate training related to student restraint and time-out procedures for students with a disability receiving special education services.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.

School districts are required to provide this type of training to staff who may have interaction with special education students.
