

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 79TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 31, 2005

TO: Honorable David Swinford, Chair, House Committee on State Affairs

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Deputy Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB905 by Delisi (Relating to the powers and duties of the state auditor in connection with state contracts.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The State Auditor's Office indicates that the provisions of the bill would not increase the number of entities audited or the amount of time spent on related audits.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.

Source Agencies: 308 State Auditor's Office, 601 Department of Transportation, 781 Higher Education Coordinating Board

LBB Staff: JOB, SR, WP