

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 79TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 11, 2005

TO: Honorable Frank Madla, Chair, Senate Committee on Intergovernmental Relations

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Deputy Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB961 by Smith, Wayne (Relating to the location of a sale of real property under a contract lien.), As Engrossed

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would authorize a county commissioners court to designate an area other than the courthouse, but in a public place within a reasonable proximity of the county courthouse, where a sale of real property under a contract lien would be held. The bill would take effect immediately if it receives the required two-thirds vote in each house; otherwise, it would take effect September 1, 2005.

Under current statute, such sales are required to be held at the county courthouse. The fiscal impact of administrative functions associated with conducting a sale at another location is anticipated to be insignificant.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
