

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 79TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 21, 2005

TO: Honorable Terry Keel, Chair, House Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Deputy Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2104 by Delisi (Relating to the prosecution of the offense of hindering apprehension or prosecution.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Penal Code relating to the prosecution of individuals for hindering the apprehension or prosecution of another. The change in law made by this Act would apply only to an offense committed on or after the effective date. The Act would take affect September 1, 2005.

It is assumed that any costs to the State resulting from the passage of the bill could be reasonably absorbed with current resources.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
